

Gianni Castelli

Gianni Castelli was born in Milan in 1950, where he studied. In 1974 he graduated in Chemistry from the University of Milan. After a brief stint at the Faculty of Agriculture at the Università Cattolica of Piacenza, he worked as a clerk in the sales department of a company in Milan.

He became an industrial manager at the age of 32.

Since 2018, he has been a Member of the Italian Regulatory Authority for Energy, Networks and Environment (ARERA).

From 2013 to 2016, he worked with Mapei S.p.A. on the construction of the pilot plant for the ecological recovery of fine dust from waste-to-energy plants.

From 2011 to August 2018, he was a consultant for A2A Ambiente for the design and implementation of the glass recovery plant.

During his career he has held several other positions. He was a director of the company Teknoquarz SpA for 15 years. He was a director and later vice-president of the Milan-Cremona Po Canal Consortium for 6 years. Director of Euromin S.p.A., a position he held for 13 years. Auditor then member of the Board of Directors of Amafond Associazione Macchine Fonderie for 25 years.

He was also a director of Aem S.p.A. President of Serenissima Gas S.p.A. and Sole Director of Serenissima Energia S.p.A. Member of the Supervisory Board of A2A S.p.A.

President of SEA Energia. Director of Delmi S.p.A. Director of E-Utile S.p.A. Director of Agam S.p.A. Director of Acsm Agam S.p.A. President then CEO of Acsm Agam Reti S.p.A.